Communion Pop Up Shop In aid of Trocaire

A group of local parents are organising a Communion Pop Up Shop with lots of pre-loved Communion outfits on next Sunday 11th February in Belgrove Girls School from 2 - 5 pm

The aims of the event are to raise funds for Trocaire who link up with medical partners on the ground in conflict zones; and, to help to create a more circular, sustainable economy in our community by bringing communion outfits back into use.

Reflection on Today's Readings

Jesus was always surrounded by needy people.

To cope with the pressure he regularly went off to quiet places to rest and to pray.

We too need a quiet place to which we can withdraw to care for ourselves and to seek the face of God.

Merely to reflect on the transience of our lives and our undertakings is a kind of purification and a test as well.

It is good, even if it shames us and wounds our pride.
