Meeting of Three Pastoral Teams

The Pastoral Teams from the three parishes in our Cluster of Clontarf/Dollymount are holding a joint meeting next Tuesday, to hopefully further the discussion on how, as three parishes, we can best support each other and serve the people of Clontarf. If you would like to contribute to the discussion, please contact the Parish office before Tuesday. 8333602 / info@stgabrielparish.ie

Run for Tony Eustace RIP

My uncle, Tony Eustace, recently passed away and my family have organised a 5k run in his memory and to raise money for Irish Cancer Society (research) and the Mater High Dependency Unit. The cost to run (or walk) is €20. We are aiming for 500 athletes of all shapes and sizes to take part. The run is in St Anne's Park, on Sunday 9th October at 11am in memory of Tony Eustace. People can register to run, or simply donate to a great cause, by following this link <https://www.iregister.ie/v2/events/run-for-tony/>

 Thank you for reading my message, Best regards, Ruairi

Sr. Angela left the convent on Mount Prospect Avenue during the week and her parting gift to us was the two beautiful benches now in our Shrine Chapel. A lovely place to sit or kneel, and we'll remember her as we do so.

Congrats Ellen!

As we prepare to print the Parish Notes Ellen Keane has won a bronze medal in the Paralympics, with two more events to come, so hopefully there will be even more good news by the time you are reading this. Well done Ellen!

Volunteers Needed in the CRC
