2nd Sunday of Advent on our Jesse Tree

This week we continue our journey through the Family Tree of Jesus in the Old Testament with four more symbols for our Jesse Tree.
 The Ladder represents Jacob, the Coat of Many Colours is Joseph, the Sheaf of Wheat represents Egypt's plenty in time of famine in Israel, and then there is Moses and the Ten Commandments.

The symbols we hang on our Jesse Tree every year are well worth a closer look. They are about eighteen years old and were made by Bernie Donnelly and her children when they were small – they are now all adults! They certainly passed the test of time and still look amazing.
