

"When You Pray You Are Part of a Global Community" (Pope Francis)

Pope Francis describes the Internet as offering "immense possibilities for encounter and solidarity. This is something truly good, a gift from God".

The Irish Jesuits were among the first to realise the potential of the Internet for prayerful reflection. The result was the global phenomenon which is "SACRED SPACE". (www.sacredspace.ie) – guiding six million visitors each year through a self-paced session of prayer centered on the daily Gospel.

New Pilgrim
Path

They have now set up NEW PILGRIM PATH (www.NewPilgrimPath.ie) to introduce us to the great wealth of Christian resources on the internet. It provides links and details of a variety of websites. These are some examples:

PRAY AS YOU GO (www.pray-as-you-go.org/home/) is a daily audio guided prayer session, designed for portable devices but can also be used on computers, to help you pray whenever you find time, such as travelling to or from work / study, etc. Lasting about ten minutes it combines music, scripture and reflections.

THE SUNDAY WEBSITE (www.liturgy.slu.edu/) prepares us for Sunday Mass by supplying the coming Sunday's readings, prayers, reflections, and selected music. We use this website regularly as a resource for our Prayers of the Faithful.

Universalis (www.universalis.com)

The Liturgy of the Hours (Divine Office) is the richest single prayer resource of the Church. Universalis is a clear and user-friendly website which makes the Divine Office very accessible on desktops or mobile devices, readily available whenever time and space allows.

Welcome

Today we welcome Sr. Gini George SSps who will speak at all Masses this weekend and make an appeal on behalf of her Congregation, the Missionary Sisters Servants of the Holy Spirit.

Rest in Peace

We offer our sincere sympathies to our retired PP, Fr. Miceál Hastings and his family on the death of his sister Peigí McNally, whose funeral took place in Westport last weekend. May she rest in peace.

Sacrament of Baptism

Last weekend we welcomed into our Christian Community through the Sacrament of Baptism:

Eli Vladimir Lynch
