One beautiful Sunday morning a Priest (Nobody we know!) looked out and decided it was such a nice day that he would skip Mass and play golf instead.

He rang in sick, packed up his gear and drove to a place where no-one would know him.

God and St. Peter were looking down at this and St. Peter said to God "Surely you can't let him away with this, what are you going to do about it?"

But God just answered "Wait and see".

The priest set up at the first tee, everything was perfect and he had a great shot – a hole in one! Peter was astonished and said to God "now look what's happened, how can you let him get away with this?"

Quietly God just smiled and replied:
"who is he going to tell about it?"
