Do This in Memory

The first of our Preparation Masses for First Holy Communion last Sunday was a lovely occasion and a great start to the wonderful year ahead for the young people.
Grateful thanks to all the hard work by the parents in preparation.

Our next Special Mass will be on Sunday 12th November at 6pm.

Youth Group, St. John the Baptist Parish Centre, Clontarf Road

This Sunday 22nd October 19.00 - 21.00
Come and Stay with us for Inspiration / Friends / Joy / Reflection / Pizza & Sausages

Many Thanks for a Great Celebration

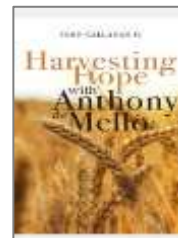

Last Sunday's Celebration of Wedding Anniversaries was a great, happy and joyful occasion for everyone, especially the thirty or so couples who participated.

Jean and the Liturgy Team did a lot of great work in preparation and ensured that everything went smoothly. The Catering team in the parish centre also managed to cheerfully cater for everyone who came over and everyone enjoyed the delicious sandwiches and cakes prepared by Ruth Hynes.
Grateful thanks to everyone involved. Fr. Pat

Don't Forget to Visit our Bookshop!

Fr. John Callanan in St. John's has published a lovely book called "Harvesting Hope with Anthony de Mello". It is now available in the book shop, price €14.99.

The shop also has a range of wooden crosses and Rosary beads from the Holy Land, and many more interesting book, gifts and cards, including Mass cards and Mass Bouquets.

Clontarf Hospital Needs Your Help Please

Clontarf Hospital is currently looking to recruit volunteers to help with a variety of patient activities including accompanying patients to outpatients departments in other hospitals. The hospital will provide an introduction to the hospital and training where needed.

If you are interested in volunteering please contact Louise or Jennifer at 8536981 / email hr1@ioh.ie
