Happy Pancake Day

Shrove Tuesday (AKA Pancake Day / Mardi Gras —French for Fat Tuesday) is traditionally a day of feasting and carnival, before the Fasting Season of 40 days of Lent. Pancakes were seen as a good way of using up rich foods
 such as eggs and milk which would be denied during Lent.

We are reliably informed that the best recipe for pancakes is "All the Threes": three eggs, three cups of flour and three cups of milk. Enjoy!

And then During Lent we could...

Take a Trocaire Box and fill it with the money saved by perhaps cutting back on sweets, meals out, cigarettes,
 wine etc.

The Rosary is recited every morning after the 10am
 Mass, all are very welcome to join in.

The Stations of the Cross. When did you last really look at our magnificent Stations?

Clear out the Long Finger! Write that letter, make that call, visit that neighbour, and so much more!
