

ST. GABRIEL'S NOTES

5th August 2018

Updates on the Pope's Mass

Well, we thought this weekend would be very exciting as we confirmed booking and distributed tickets. However, the tickets will not now be issued before 10th August.

As this will mean that time is getting short, we are now looking for your confirmations.

If your name is on our Expression of Interest list you will get priority for tickets and busses, but we do need you to confirm your booking please.

If you have booked your own ticket, and want to come on our bus, we have set up a waiting list for you.

And if you have done nothing yet, and decide you would like to come with us, we have a waiting list for you too.

Please call in to Anne or myself in the Parish office / sacristy during the week. As it is essential that we get our numbers right, please do not give us verbal confirmations if we do not have the lists with us.

Just to remind everyone, buses will only take us to the entrance of the Phoenix Park, and there is a walk of about two to three miles from there. Apparently this is for security following terrorist attacks around the world using heavy vehicles. But there will be rest stops, water & refreshments along the way, and plenty of great atmosphere and cheer.

We have a dream, and are hoping to show the Mass in the Phoenix Park (Sunday) and the Festival of Families in Croke Park (Saturday) live on our powerpoint screens in St. Gabriel's.

Keep up the prayers as we look forward to the Pope's visit.

Fr. Pat

CHAIRS sold out early last week, so we got some more and they are available in the shop after Mass – price €8.

Sacrament of Baptism

Last week we welcomed into our Christian Community through the Sacrament of Baptism:

Oliver James Milligan
Sarah Tess Savage

Rest in Peace

We offer our sincere sympathies to the family and friends of Eoíl Lennon, Dollymount Grove, whose funeral took place in Baldoyle last Tuesday.
May he rest in peace.

Churchgate Collection Today

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul are taking up their monthly Church gate collection after all Masses this weekend. They appeal for your usual generosity.

Saints' Relics in Ireland

The Relics of Saints Louis & Zélie Martin, and their daughter St. Thérèse of Lisieux are being brought to Ireland to coincide with the World Meeting of Families.

Starting this Sunday, 5th Aug. the relics will be in the Pro-Cathedral from 11am to 6.30pm

They will be all day Monday in St. Teresa's, Clarendon Street

& all day Tuesday in Whitefriar Street.

They will then travel to Knock and around the country until they return to be in the Sanctuary for the Papal Mass.

A full list of their itinerary is available in the Gathering Area.
