Three Parish Justice & Peace Group

A group of parishioners from our three parishes meets about every six weeks to reflect on and raise awareness on issues of faith and justice.

Already the group has organised a collection of books for some direct provision centres and held a social evening for people staying in Clontarf for the World Meeting of Families. Their information sheets on Homelessness and Refugees & Asylum seekers in Ireland are available in the Gathering Area.

The next meeting is on next Tues. 25th Sept in St. John's Sacristy. For more information please contact the parish office.
