

ST. GABRIEL'S NOTES

30th September 2018

Changing Mass Times

We have received a few queries regarding the changes we have made to our Weekend Mass times. It appears some of our notices have caused confusion, and we sincerely apologise for that.

The Saturday Vigil Mass has changed from 6pm to 5pm. The Sunday evening Mass has remained unchanged at 6pm.

*Our Weekend Mass times now are:
Saturday 5pm; Sunday 10.30 & 6pm*

Sacrament of Baptism

Last week we welcomed into our Christian Community through the Sacrament of Baptism:

Tom James McSweeney
Sam Louis McDermott

Rosary on the Coast

On Sunday 7th October starting at 2.30pm, join with tens of thousands of people at different locations around Ireland and the world, in the first simultaneous global Coastal Rosary initiative, invoking our Lady's powerful intercession. Please do come and make a special effort to pray to God for mercy & blessings for our Church, Ireland and the world.

Our nearest Coastal Rosary will be on Dollymount Strand. Meet at the Interpretative Centre at 2.30pm. Further details are available on www.coastalrosaryireland.ie

"Do This in Memory of Me"

Preparation Mass for First Holy Communion

The first Mass in our Do this in Memory programme for the children preparing for their First Holy Communion in 2019, and their parents and families, will be held here next Sunday at the 6pm Mass.

A meeting of parents to prepare the Mass will be held in the Church Conference Room on next Wednesday, 3rd Oct. at 8pm
(Entrance by side gate on Dollymount Park, up the steps and the door on your left)

Volunteer Sunday

I was taken by Moses' answer in the first reading: "If only the whole people of the Lord were prophets."

Prophets bring God's message to others. Today, Volunteer Sunday, is a reminder that we all have a part to play in our Church community.

We are lucky to have so many volunteers in our Church. But we need more! Don't leave it to others — YOU CAN HELP.

Nobody can do everything but Everyone can do something. Please leave your name and contact details with the Parish Pastoral Council members after Mass.

Thank you!

Fr. Pat
