

ST. GABRIEL'S NOTES

24th February 2019

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER NOVENA OF GRACE

Fr. Dermot Mansfield
S.J. will give the Novena
of Grace here in St.
Gabriel's from Mon 4th
to Tues 12th March.

The prayers will be recited at each morning Mass and during all weekend Masses. A box will be available for your petitions and Fr. Dermot will take these each day after Mass and include them in his prayers.

wish to thank all who participated for their support and wonderful generosity.

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week.

The Liturgical Season of Ordinary Time counts
the time between Christmas Season and Lent, and between Easter Season and Advent.
Ordinary Time readings, liturgy and prayer can be a rich time to reflect upon our relationship with God, our relationships with each other and to grow in depth on many levels. Creighton University Online Ministries has a huge variety of helpful resources for prayer in Ordinary Time, which you can access at

Reading Glasses for Uganda

Mary Murphy from the three-parish Peace & Justice Group visited Uganda recently and is appealing for unwanted reading glasses to be sent there.
They can be left in the parish office any morning. Thank you for your support.
