

ST. GABRIEL'S NOTES

30th June 2019

What a Wonderful Weekend!

Once again, our Parish Barbecue was a huge success.

Grateful thanks also to those who worked hard to make it happen, our chefs, P.J., Sean & Damien and all the helpers who served the food, set up and stayed back late to clear everything away - and of course to everyone who came.

We are very grateful to our sponsors:

McKenna's Butchers once again provided their wonderful BBQ sausages, George O'Brien, in our Meals on Wheels, Supervalu Killester - and several parishioners - provided salads, cakes and other goodies. MSL Park Motors sponsored the bouncy castles & games, and brought along the car that Pope Francis used in Dublin last year.

Many thanks too for your kind donations - they covered all of our expenses.

On Sunday, Sarah Ryan held a Coffee Morning, book sale and raffle to raise funds for her trip to Zambia to build houses for Habitat for Humanity. Donations and sales of books and raffle tickets amounted to a fantastic €1,347. Again, grateful thanks to everyone who came along, donated prizes and books, bought tickets and gave donations.

Tadhg Páraic Ellard
Aoife Claire Hannon
