Can You Help Us Please?

While our choirs are taking a break, we are also without powerpoint as choir members usually look after setting it up and putting it away after Mass. It would be nice to have some powerpoints so we are now looking for volunteers.

Would you be prepared to come in about 15 minutes before Mass to switch it on and take about ten minutes after Mass to put it all away? Please drop into the parish office any weekday morning, or phone Anne on 8333602, if you are interested in helping or would like to know more.

Another Request for Volunteers

St Vincent De Paul urgently need volunteers in the areas of Dublin, Wicklow and Kildare to work in assistance with individuals and families for once a week, for about 3 hours, day or night, (whatever suits you best). Full training and support provided - for more information Tel: 8198405 or visit: www.SVP.ie / volunteer@svp.ie

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week.

The late John O'Donohue was an Irish poet, Hegelian philosopher and author of many books including the best-selling Anam Cara. His themes of echo as the response of continuity, imagination as the ability to still see the mountain behind the mist, and absence as the transformed presence of the vanished, awaken our thinking and provide food for our spiritual journey in an increasingly hungry world.

One of the lines that he loved in the New Testament was: "One day you will know as you are now known." To hear his beautiful hour-long discourse on 'The Inner Landscape of Beauty', visit www.NewPilgrimPath.ie
