Matthew 10:37-42

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Ireland)

IN THE GOSPEL TODAY

My name is _____

Jesus says that if someone welcomes a follower of his they also welcome Jesus and God the Father too. Anyone who helps Jesus' disciples will be rewarded.

WELCOME

Here is a banner in a school. The children want to welcome the new pupils. Colour the banner and balloons.

Draw other things that will make the pupils feel welcome in the space under the banner.

Greeting a friend

Ava wants to make her friend feel welcome. Work out what she might say by sorting out the scrambled letters. Add your own idea in the empty speech bubbles.

What do you think is the most welcoming and friendly thing to say?

How can we help?

The labels describe people who need help. Match them with the help they need.

Deep into my heart

Sometimes it seems hard to follow Jesus, but if we welcome him into our hearts we will be rewarded.

Follow the pink path to find Jesus.

A PRAYER TO SAY

Dear Jesus, help us to make you welcome in our hearts. Help us to follow your teachings so that we become your true disciples. Amen.
