Rest in Peace

We offer our sincere sympathies to the family and friends of John Leo Walsh, brother of Cáit Murphy, Park Lawn, whose funeral took place here on Saturday. Also James Hogan, Park Lawn, whose funeral took place in St. John's on Saturday. May John and James rest in peace.

Shine Your Light

We have a supply of beautiful red candles for sale at €6 each. Available in the Parish office or in the Gathering Area after weekend Masses.

We invite you to help revive the old Irish custom, and light a candle in the window on Christmas Night to welcome the Holy Family.

You might also like to light it this Sunday night, as suggested by RTE, to mark the Winter Solstice, the longest night of the year, on 21st December.

COVID-19 Support Line for Older People

ALONE manage a national support line and additional supports for older people who have concerns or are facing difficulties relating to COVID-19 (Coronavirus).

Professional staff are available to answer queries and give advice and reassurance where necessary. The support line is open seven days a week, 8am - 8pm on 0818 222 024, and will remain open over the Christmas period.

Thank You from Crosscare

We are writing to express a big 'thank you' to Parishes.
 We asked for donations of toiletries to include with food parcels we distribute. We received a huge amount We also received food and financial donations via www.crosscare.ie. Donations are welcome all year round, but especially at this difficult time, when so many are looking for help. Wishing you a Happy Christmas from the Crosscare Food Services team.

A Word of Thanks

The Residents and Staff of Clontarf Private Nursing Home wish to express our gratitude and sincere appreciation to our local community for all the wonderful support and kindness shown to us during this difficult year. Our hopes and prayers are with all of you and your families this Christmas.
