LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Leviticus 13 :1-2. 44-46

A reading from the book of Leviticus

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, 'If a swelling or scab or shiny spot appears on a man's skin, a case of leprosy of the skin is to be suspected. The man must be taken to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests who are his sons. 'The man is leprosy: he is unclean. The priest must declare him unclean; he is suffering from leprosy of the head.

A man infected with leprosy must wear his clothing torn and his hair disordered; he must shield his upper lip and cry, "Unclean, unclean". As long as the disease lasts he must be unclean; and therefore he must live apart; he must live outside the camp.'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps. 31:1-2.5.11

R. You are my refuge, O Lord; you fill me with the joy of salvation.

1. Happy the man whose offence is forgiven, whose sin is remitted. O happy the man to whom the Lord imputes no guilt, in whose spirit is no guile. (R)

2. But now I have acknowledged my sins; my guilt I did not hide. I said: 'I will confess my offence to the Lord.' And you, Lord, have forgiven the guilt of my sin. (R)

3. Rejoice, rejoice in the Lord, exult, you just! O come, ring out your joy, all you upright of heart. (R)

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 10:31 - 11:1

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians Whatever you eat, whatever you drink, whatever you do at all, do it for the glory of God. Never do anything offensive to anyone - to Jews or Greeks or to the Church of God; just as I try to be helpful to everyone at all times, not anxious for my own advantage but for the advantage of everybody else, so that they may be saved.

Take me for your model, as I take Christ. The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mark 1:29-39

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

A leper came to Jesus and pleaded on his knees: 'If you want to' he said 'you can cure me.' Feeling sorry for him, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him. 'Of course I want to!' he said. 'Be cured!' And the leprosy left him at once and he was cured. Jesus immediately sent him away and sternly ordered him, 'Mind you say nothing to anyone, but go and show yourself to the priest, and make the offering for your healing prescribed by Moses as evidence of your recovery.' The man went away, but then started talking about it freely and telling the story everywhere, so that Jesus could no longer go openly into any town, but had to stay outside in places where nobody lived. Even so, people from all around would come to him.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

The mystery of faith.

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

God so loved the world that he gave his Only Begotten Son, so that all who believe in him may not perish, but may have eternal life.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Having fed upon these heavenly delights, we pray, O Lord, that we may always long for that food by which we truly live.

Through Christ our Lord.

In his healing of a leper, Jesus risked contagion, and being ostracised. His love was and is a self-sacrificing love, we see this later, on the cross. All love has elements of self-sacrifice.

The family is the first school where we learn this.

Parents give of themselves, their time and hard-won earnings for the children. All through our family life with brothers and sisters we make sacrifices for each other. So much of family life is self-giving. Even though we get joy out of putting ourselves out for the family, it can be painful. In other areas of life we experience people going beyond the beyond the call of duty, like teachers and chaplains in schools and hospitals; health care workers helping those with coronavirus, and many others, This joy of giving, is found also in the following of Jesus. The joy of love is well celebrated at this Valentine's time of the year.

As we grow older, we hope we have become that bit more loving and like Christ: that we just do it! Especially living in compassion and care for those who need it most, those who suffer a lot.

God, in Jesus, is there in our suffering, wanting our wholeness. We know faith can grow from it, that the meaning of life can be found.

Lord, may I feel your closeness in any difficulties I have; let me care for others in theirs.
